No. CR-22-50054-001-PHX-DJH
ORDER

15 Before the Court is Defendant's pro se Motion for Early Release of Probation¹ (Doc 16 2). The Government has filed a Response (Doc 4). For the forgoing reasons, currently the 17 Court denies the Motion.

18 This Court accepted jurisdiction over the Defendant's case on February 28, 2022
19 from the Northern District of Texas. Following his conviction for Conspiracy to Possess
20 with Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance, that Court imposed a sentence of seventy-
21 months in federal custody followed by a three-year supervised release term. (Doc 1-2).

22 Defendant states that he was released from custody in October 2020 to a half-way
23 house, that he has completed substance use treatment and has since become employed.
24 (Doc. 2 at 2). These are all signs of positive progress. However, the Government points
25 out that it has become aware that there is an active Department of Child Safety case upon
26 the Defendant and his girlfriend. (Doc. 4 at 1). Both the Government and the Defendant's 27 assigned probation officer would like additional time to determine the outcome and/or

28 ¹ Defendant is not serving a term of probation. He is serving a term of supervised release following his custody term.

1 findings of that case. (Id. at 2). Given that this information is relevant to the Defendant's
2 Motion, the Court would also like additional time to review the outcome of the pending
3 matter. Accordingly, currently the Court denies the Defendant's Motion.

4 IT IS ORDERED denying the Defendant's Motion (Doc. 2) without prejudice.

5 Dated this 18th day of May, 2023.
